- Updates after completing annual training for commissioners in 4 locations around the state:
 - We are fortunate here to have a county organization that meets regularly to solve issues.
 - Tax zones are being redone in Belgium/Cold Springs and Watertown.
 - Social media was a big topic of conversation.
 - Inflated Equipment and construction costs were also discussed.
 - Ogdensburg and Cape Vincent are both undergoing consolidations.

Commissioner W. Bedford

- Both Tahoe's are in and are getting outfitted. They should both be in service soon. The Quint is getting preventative maintenance this week. Nick Mucci, Scott McCafferty and Marc Baxter greased the ladder today. It is quite a long process that requires several people.
- There was a discussion regarding installing an undercarriage power wash at the new station. Capt. Gates has begun his research and has preliminary pricing.
- We are still holding meetings to plan the new rescue truck.
